

AFFIDAVIT OF PUBLICATION

Before me, a Notary Public did personally appear on March 15, 2019, Tracy R. Mesler, Publisher of the Nocona News, a newspaper of general circulation in Montague County who certified that advertisement was published in February 28, 2019, edition of the Nocona News, did appear an

Notice of Intent to introduce legislation relating to dissolution of the North Montague County Water Supply District

Signature Tracy R. Mesler

Sworn and subscribed before me this the 15th day of March, 2019, in the County of Montague, in the State of Texas.

Notary of Public Signature Brandi Ann Shipman

Commission Expires: 12-8-22

of Nocona Hills, John and Jill Bristow and see if, how they might be related.

Ms. Dickinson sent the following explanation of her inquiry:

Good evening / good morning Tracy

It was really good to speak with you today and I am profoundly grateful for your offer to print a story about my 'quest'.

As I mentioned my name is Anne Dickinson, née Andrews. Since January 2017, I have been conducting research into my Andrews family genealogy.

During the course of my research I discovered that I have a great-uncle, Norman Andrews, who was killed on the Somme on 22 December 1916. Since this discovery, I have visited his grave in 2017 and again on 12 November 2018.

It was on my latest visit that, when I signed the CWGC register at the entrance to the cemetery, I noticed that the previous entry in the register was made by a certain John and Jill Bristow from Nocona Hills, Texas, who had also come to pay their respects to Norman Andrews. As you can imagine, my heart missed a beat when I read this. Why should they have come to this small, remote cemetery? What is their connection to great-uncle Norman? What do they know about him? Are either John or Jill distant cousins of mine? Do they have any photos of Norman?

So, when I got back to England, I made it my quest to track down John and Jill Bristow with the aim of finding answers to my questions. With the help of Google, I made contact with the Nocona Hills Owners Association, but they were unable to find anything which could help me. I then found you and your publication and would be absolutely thrilled were you able to somehow come to my aid and publicise and promote this particular odyssey and maybe track down the elusive John and Jill.

I am enclosing two photographs, one of Norman's grave and one of the entries in the Commonwealth War Graves Commission register which shows John and Jill and which contains the photo I took on my first visit.

I don't know what copy-write laws are like in the US, but you most certainly have my permission to use the photos which I took and the synopsis I wrote, or extracts from it, when putting together any article for your publication.

I very much look forward to hearing from you, and please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.

With very kind regards
Anne (Dickinson, née Andrews)

The ninth of eleven children, Norman Andrews was born Nov. 22, 1887, in Bradford, England. He later worked as a "patternman" in the "stuffs" which was involved in the manufacture of worsted cloth.

"During World War I, Norman played his part for King and Country. He served in the 8th Northumberland Fusiliers and the 1st Northumberland Fusiliers, his rank being that of Private and his Service Number 20797. On 21 September 1915, he disembarked in the Balkans," Ms. SDickinson wrote.

He died in Somme on Dec. 22, 1916, when, according to the notation in the records, while the heavy fighting had ended on Nov. 18, 1916, the two armies were still entrenched, shelling each other.

One of the shells broke "down the roof of one of the big dug-outs burying 10 men. After working 1.9 hours all but 3 men were got out, one of whom was killed."

"Norman is buried in Courcelles-au-Bois Communal Cemetery in grave D.15.

"The entry in the cemetery records reads; "Son of William and Martha Andrews, of 27 Silverhill Drive, Thornbury, Bradford, Yorkshire. Remembered with honour". The inscription on his tombstone reads:

"He sleeps with England's heroes in the watchful care of God".

If anyone has information regarding how to contact the Bristow's, email that to news@noconanews.net and it will be forwarded on to Ms. Dickinson.

Please bring the patient's shot record and Medicaid card.

No CHIPS accepted. If your child is covered by private insurance that pays for immunizations the Health Department cannot vaccinate.

The Adult Safety Net eligibility is for those with no

Pvt. Norman Andrews grave at the cemetery at the Sommes.

1914-15 Star

**

"A good speech should be like a woman's skirt; long enough to cover the subject and short enough to create interest."

—Winston Churchill

**

"Man is not free unless government is limited. There's a clear cause and effect here that is as neat and predictable as a law of physics. As government expands, liberty contracts."

—Ronald Reagan

**

Donna Howell-Sickles

FORT WORTH — "The Trail of the Cowgirl" opens Saturday, March 9 at the Cowgirl Hall of Fame in Fort Worth featuring the artwork of Saint Jo's Donna Howell-Sickles.

Along with the grand opening of the Kit Moncrief Galleries and It's Never Just a Horse exhibition, Cowgirl Honoree Donna Howell-Sickles' "The Trail of the Cowgirl" exhibition will open on March 9 in the Anne W. Marion Gallery. Howell-Sickles' blend of women, horses and history is the perfect complement to the renovated second floor.

Donna Howell-Sickles, a western artist from Saint Jo, was inducted into the Cowgirl Hall of Fame in 2007 for her artistic work and the ability to take the image and idea of the cowgirl beyond charcoal lines and into reality.

"Before I discovered the image rich identity of the women who shaped the West, horses alone were enough to hold my interest," said Howell-Sickles, describing her passion for the art she creates. "They spoke to me of strength, beauty and the ability to survive. I still use the cowgirl to tell very current stories for, and about, women using an eclectic collection of images and ideas from both the past and the present."

Her art tells the stories of Western women, the West; she than just the co-jects.

"My artwork admiration for Western women and present," s Sickles. "Stories telling about depth and joy o an appreciation and struggles we

Howell-Sickl communicate found in embra and vitality and tance of choosin ever the opport through her wo exhibited her ar tional Cowboy Heritage Museu Bill Art Show d tional Museum Art and more.

"The figures are living in thei we viewers are glimpse into thei

Pursuant to Tex. Gov't Code Ann. 313.002 and the requirements of the Texas Constitution, this statement is a notice of intent to introduce in the 86th Texas Legislature, Regular Session, a bill relating to the dissolution of the North Montague County Water Supply District that encompasses some of the territory contained within Montague County.

Your Local Places o

Bethel Baptist Church

310 7th St. - 825-3577
Sunday School 9:45 a.m.
Morning Worship 11 a.m.
Evening Service 6 p.m.

Nueva Vida Bautista

609 Montague - 825-3924
Bible Study 10 a.m.
Worship Service 11 a.m.

Bible Baptist Temple

700 E. Willow - 825-4940
Sunday School 10 a.m.
Morning Worship 11 a.m.

Bible Way Mission

Cherry & Henrietta Sts.
Sunday School 10 a.m.
Morning Worship 11 a.m.
Evening Service 7 p.m.

Church of Christ

311 Cooke - 825-3136
Bible School 9:30 a.m.
Morning Assm. 10:30 a.m.
Evening Assm. 5:30 p.m.
Wednesday Assm. 7 p.m.

Northside Landmark

Missionary Baptist Church
Corner of Grayson & Mimosas
Sunday School 10 a.m.
Morning Worship 11 a.m.
Evening Worship 6:30 p.m.

Church of the Nazarene

300 E. Elm St. - 825-6031
Sunday School 9:45 a.m.
Morning Worship 10:45 a.m.
Evening Worship 6 p.m.

First Baptist C

511 Cooke St. -
Sunday School 9
Worship Service 10
Evening Worship
Wednesday Service

Christ Communi

101 Bois D'A
825-379
Sunday Worship
Wednesday Study

Shady Gro

Community C
Worship Service

First Presbyteria

406 11th S
Worship Service 9

March's immunization clinic to be held in Nocona

The Texas Department of State Health Services has combined its immunization clinics for March to one site.

The next clinic will be held on Thursday, March 19 at the First Baptist Church, 511 Cooke St., in Nocona. There will be no clinic in Bowie in March.

Vaccine is available for